In a faraway land there dwelt a kingdom. Oh, not just any kind, but the noble and beautiful Arroyo Kingdom. Ruling within the castle was a fair and just king and his consultants. Magical wizards and charming jesters added their power and tricks to brighten the lives of the town's subject.

For their lives were endangered by the wretched ogres and beastly dragons that roamed beyond the castle gates.

Only one was not fearful of these creatures. He was the bold and strong Knight of Arroyo Kingdom.

Come, venture with me into this ancient book of tales and see what you shall see in . . . . . .

Hark onto thee! There is a great rejoicing in the Kingdom of Arroyo. A celebration is being held for the 25th anniversary of Arroyo. Let there be food, spirits, and a little dragon-slaying here and there. Because of the good subjects of this fair land, Arroyo has managed to survive 25 years. Here ye, have a cup o' spirits and join in the merriment!

He rode through the forest terrain upon his magical steed — fighting the wicked spirits and poisonous trolls. He rode — to seek out the destructive dragons of doom. Arroyo Kingdom had to be protected. He would do all that he could as he travelled onward . . . Presenting our fearless —

THE 1980 KNIGHT

MISS LAURA WORRELL

The King of Arroyo summoned his consultants one day and told them of his ingenious plan. In order to defeat the other kingdoms in the area, he must have the strongest of strong, the quickest of quick for battle.

With that order, the King's wizard and apothocaries set to work and conjured up top-breed athletes for the King.

SENIORS

The king had declared that the upper members of the Kingdom, the Seniors, were to participate in a Royal Census-a poll. He needed to know of the craziest, or the prettiest, or the most able-bodied subjects to honor the halls of the court. So, he had issued many parchments to every Senior and they graciously answered the poll. Now, without further ado-here are the results of the Senior Poll.

Of all the activities that occured in Arroyo Kingdom, none was as faire as the crowning of the Knight's Lady. All of the upper-class, the Seniors, were curious and full of wonder as to who would fill this beautiful position. Ten lovely maids would be whisked off to Anthony Loya Studio to have colored images taken of them. Then, the Knight's Lady and her court would be named and honored. . .

FACULTY

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

Mr. Donald Fox

As I conclude my neophyte year as your principal, let me share some of my thoughts about our school with you.

I have enjoyed my first year at Arroyo High School immensely and want to thank the student body, our staff and the community for their support and encouragement. To our seniors who are graduating, best wishes and Godspeed. To our students returning next year, I want you to continue the high standards of student behavior and academic success that have long been associated with Arroyo High School. To some who are occasionally critical of our school, I ask you to look around. We must be doing some things right! Our students are happy, so are our parents. Learning is taking place. Our total staff is a cohesive unit working in harmony with one another and dedicated to the task of providing our students with the best education possible. I am proud to be associated with our school and know most of you have the same good feeling.

GIRLS STATE

LINDA WONG

I didn't even know what Girl's State was until after my week's stay there was over. That week was the most important time of my life. There were 500 girls from all over California at this one place, all with the same motive, to learn of government and how to become a part of it.

Everyone was so friendly and very special to me. I've learned much during the short week; many friends and memories were made. The experience at Girl's State has helped me become a much better person. One important thing I've learned is never to be afraid to meet people; there just might be someone special hidden inside.

I'd like to thank Mr. Leal Genung, Mrs. Katherine Trepp, the faculty, the A.S.B. Commission, and the American Legion Auxiliary for the wonderful experiences. Also, best wishes to the Class of 1980.

Love to All,
Linda Wong

FALL ASB PRESIDENT

KATHY TSUCHIYAMA

I would first like to thank my parents, my sister Cynthia, and my friends for the encouragement and love that brought me this far.

My years here at Arroyo have meant a lot to me. They have given me lasting friendships and experiences that will always be memorable to me. The plaque presented to me by the Delta Kappa Gamma at the end of my term will always represent to me those friendships and those experiences.

It's difficult to sum up in a few words the memories of four years, but Arroyo will always be an important part of my life.

Signed,
Kathy Tsuchiyama

SPRING ASB PRESIDENT

It was a great honor to be your Spring ASB President. This past semester has been one of fun and enjoyment as well as change. All in all, it has really been a great semester.

I would like to thank Mrs. Trepp for making me work hard and giving me lots of support. I would also like to give my full appreciation to the commissioners who worked with me. They really worked hard and I can't do enough to thank them.

One thing I found out from these people is the true meaning of friendship and what working together is all about and I am eternally grateful for that.

Finally I would like to thank our student body for showing that we care about our school and we do have spirit, and my only advice is get involved in some ACTIVITY at Arroyo High. It really makes school more enjoyable.

Sincerely,
David Baca

MISCELLANEOUS

FROM OTHER REALMS . . .

My name is Tomi Martensson and I'm a 17 year old high school student from Finland. Before I came to California, I expected to see many great things. But when I arrived, I found many more wonderful things than I had imagined there would be. I haven't found many new things that I dislike.

I really enjoy your state, your people, your way of living, and your high school system. California has given me a good opportunity to participate in my sport, bodybuilding. Arroyo High School has given me a good opportunity to make new friends. I like Arroyo and I love the U.S.A.

I am Irene Bockemuller, German exchange student from Northeim, a town in Lower Saxony near Hannover, who came over here on 22nd of August with the organization "Youth for Understanding". Before I came to Arroyo I attended Workman High School in La Puente. The reason that I came to America is to get to know different people with different cultures; it is very exciting for me to have all those new experiences.

I will stay in America with my family until July. My mother here is Nancy Chipman and my brother Patrick Jessy Farley. In Germany I'm the only child. I enjoy California very much and have a interesting time at Arroyo.

Hi,

My name is Camilla Lillieskold and I am an exchange student from Stockholm, Sweden. My organization is called Student International Service of Europe (SISE) and I think it is one of the best exchange organizations.

I came here because I wanted to have more experiences and I wanted to experience adopting to another culture.

I am living with the Bergneu family, and their house is by Midway. I am very fond of them and I thank them for taking me in as their daughter.

I just want you to know that I love California with its great weather and I think Arroyo High School is a good school.

Love
Camilla

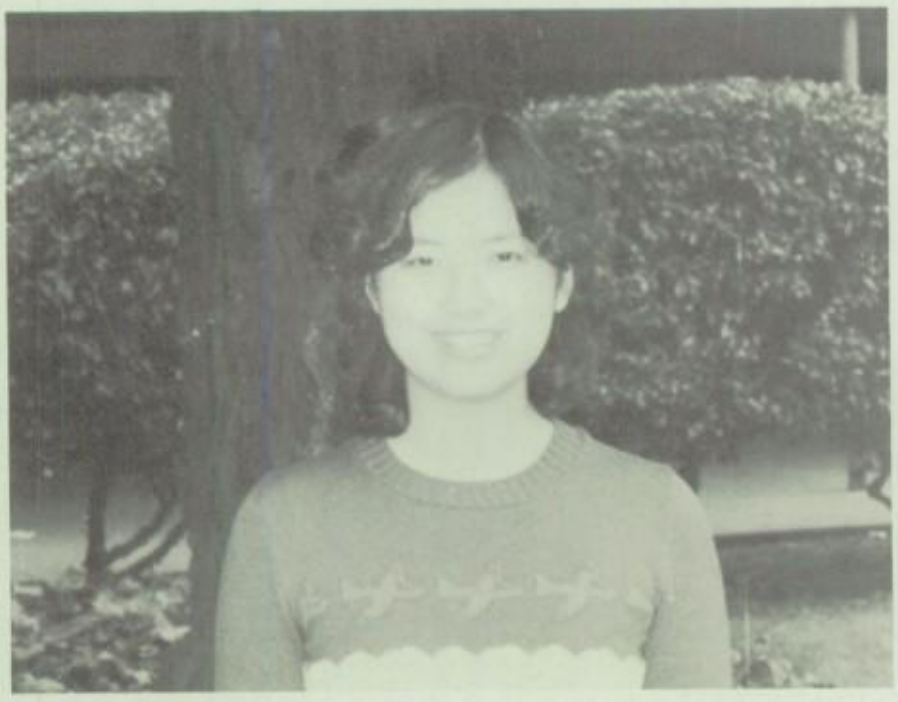
. . . VISITING NOBLES

Salut!

This year I received the pleasant opportunity to be an A.F.S. foreign exchange student. I've really enjoyed Arroyo High School, I discovered new customs, different ways of living and of thinking. Also I met new friends and I appreciated the California sunshine!

I'd like to thank both teachers and students that helped make this year a nice experience for me. Also I'd like to extend my gratitude to my American family, the Stowell's for opening their home to me.

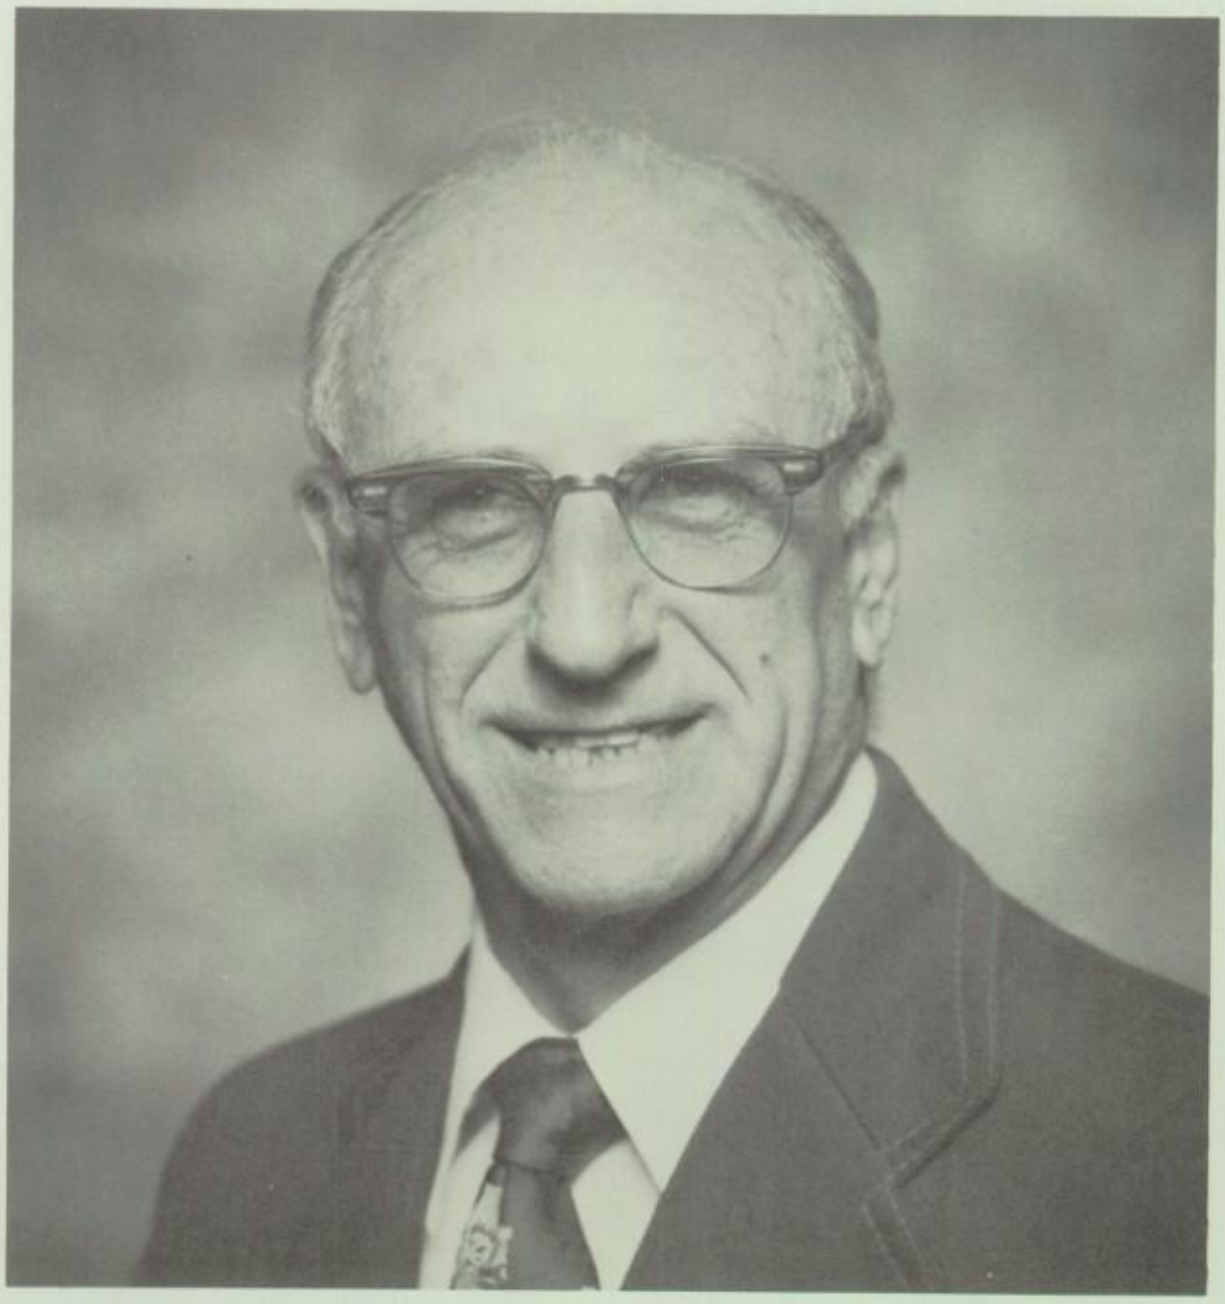
Love
Raphaele Gresset
(France)



It is very wonderful to spend part of one's life in a foreign country. One can learn a different way of life and a different culture. In fact, almost every day I was surprised at many new things. At the same time, one can find many things one didn't notice about one's country. My life in America was fun. I met many people and they were all nice. I had really good times with friends, teachers and other people, but my best times were with my host family, the Calhouns. I would like to say thank you to everybody for everything I will cherish the memories forever.

Love to all,
Keiko.

FARE YE WELL



MR. LEAL GENUNG

LEAL GENUNG started his career with the El Monte Union High School District back in September of 1950. He completed the requirements for his teaching credential at Occidental College. Prior to his entrance to Occidental, Mr. Genung served his country during World War II as a pilot in the United States Air Force. That experience led to his selection of engineering and mathematics as his major areas of study.

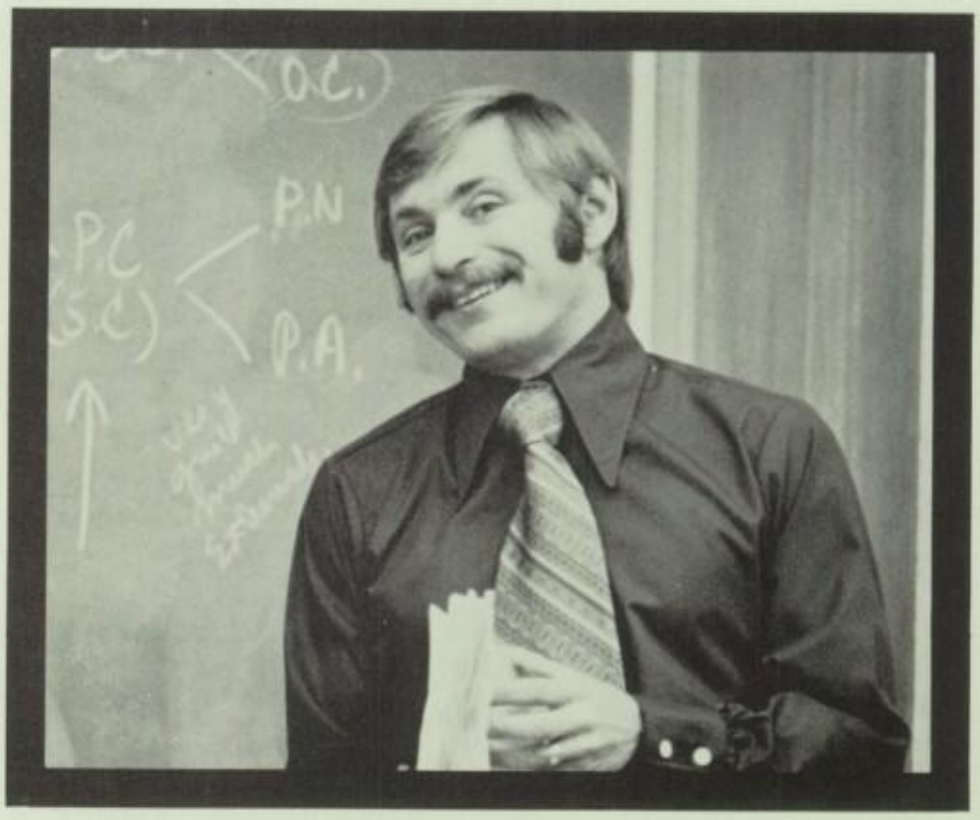
Mr. Genung started his career at El Monte High School as a teacher of Mathematics and coached Basketball and Cross-Country. In 1953 Mr. Genung was requested to become a member of the Rosemead High School staff as a teacher and part time counselor and later was promoted to Assistant Principal for Student Services. Presently Leal is the Assistant Principal for Instruction.

If you will look around at a number of the school activities you will find Mr. Genung there to observe his students in their moments of success. He has been more than just a dedicated staff member but one who has a genuine and sincere interest in the total life of the Arroyo Knights.

Special thanks to Ad-Graphics-Baldwin Park for their graphic assistance.

MEMORIUM

JOHN WEEKS



John Weeks was a special person, a sensitive, funny, compassionate man. He loved life and lived it with rare intensity. His commitment to his students was intense, as was his commitment to the teaching profession, and his friends. Those around him responded to the intensity of his caring. One the day that he died, his students wrote letters to his parents revealing the depth of their grief and sense of loss.

His friends experienced an even greater sense of loss for they had known more intimately his intelligence, his outragous sense of humor, his loyalty. Mr. Weeks was the most loyal of friends. I cannot think of higher praise. We are richer and better for having known him.

My memories of Mr. Weeks are many: his laugh and the mischievous twinkle in his eye; his mock threat to blow up his classroom, students and all, if they failed to pass the next grammar test; and his ability, even in the last weeks of his life, to joke about his own illness. I will remember his hatred of cruelty, injustice, and incompetence, and his fine sense of the absurdity of life. His death was the ultimate absurdity, creating a void that cannot be filled.

CONNIE PENCALL

In the last two decades, thousands of children in this community spent a year in John Weeks' classroom. It was their good fortune to have a teacher who was concerned about them, generous with his time and interest, and a scholar. At John's death last winter, we lost an extraordinary teacher.

Nor was John just a talented teacher. He was an energetic and intelligent spokesman for teachers and public schools. It will be a long time before we find another with his skills.

And the many who were close to John lost a good friend, a man of warmth and understanding, of enormous vitality and charm and wit. There is an emptiness in our lives where John stood. May God bless him and help us, while remembering our loss, yet to be grateful for the time, and the times, he was with us.

GEORGE GETZE

MEMORIUM

ISBELL McDUFFIE

Isabelle McDuffie, in her all too brief lifetime, crossed many of our paths. We shall fondly remember each encounter with the "lovely lady from Virginia". She was chairman and an exemplary teacher in the Homemaking Department at Arroyo for eighteen years. Her soft voice, her lively brown eyes, and her stately carriage were without peer. She cherished the moments spent with her students, hoping, by example, to instill in them her own remarkable values - her own discoveries of all that is the finest in our culture.

The halls were filled with a laugh and a smirk
As everyone came back for the first day of work
The teachers were back, the students too,
Everyone happy to see "good ol' you."
The first day of school brought summer to an end,
The beach days are over for me and my friend.
Rivers, mountains, deserts too -
All the things we used to do;
But now its gone until next June,
We hope it hurrys back real soon.
School started at one-twenty degrees,
We all wished the air would freeze.
I see confused freshmen everywhere I go,
They're cute and know how to give a good show.
Being late to school is really a pain,
Having to stay half the period and try to explain.
The attendance office is always full of students,
Many arguing about their truants.
Sitting in class, my mind tends to wander,
Sitting on the beach - I can think of nothing fonder!
People running for office had to get out their petition;
The elections are next week, looks like hard competition.
An October earthquake session has hit,
And I'd like to see the ground really split!
The leaves all started to turn different browns
And they made a mess of the school grounds.
In October, strange things are seen,
On Halloween, green is mean!
Halloween dress-up day is really crazy,
Those who don't dress up are considered lazy.
Susan came to school dressed like a Playboy Bunny,
She won the best costume and got a dance ticket instead of money.
The J.V. Cheers t.p.'d the football houses on Halloween night,
Then the boys t.p.'d them back to start a big fight.
Halloween was great this year lets hear it,
Not much trick or treats, but a lot of spirits!
The sophomore class sold garters galore,
But a lot of people were still yelling for more.
Of course we weren't sure when sports began -
Would we have coaches for the year at hand?
Referees, umpires, and judges in sports,
Now judgement decisions are made by the courts.
Everyone was yelling and talking out loud,
The cheers could be heard from out of the crowd.
The first football game gave us high hopes,
But South Pas and Azusa proved us to be dopes.
At the Howdy Dance, the band was hot,
The one we heard was called 'Longshot'.
People go to football games to yell and boo,
But look on the bright side, at least we won two!
The football game with Rosemead was really a mess,
We lost the game because of rain, I guess.
Football coaches knew the season wouldn't be a breeze,
But it didn't help when the players got bad knees.
Our first three-day weekend came at last,
Everyone said it went by too fast.
At least the football season wasn't a total loss,
We sure showed Keppel who is boss.
Lately our football team's been getting into some tussels,
I guess because of the rain and mud, its been wearing out their muscles.
Selling ribbons is not much fun,
We're glad when Fridays over and the selling is done.
Although football didn't have much success,
I must say, they went out and did their best.
It would be easier after a game loss to go and hide,
But you could keep your chin up and still have pride.
Our Varsity Cheers yell loud at games,
The volume of the mic caused some parents to complain.
The football team's houses were t.p.'d galore,
But picking it up was the real chore.
Pep Club is really big this year, More people to help the cheerleaders cheer.
The cheerleaders this year have lots of spirit,
With lots of cheers, they make you hear it!
Getting ready for competition is really a bummer,
We don't even get a break from practice in the summer.
After school the cheers practice everyday,
When they go to competition it should really pay.
At the first competition, the songs didn't compete,
They flet they weren't ready and didn't want to be beat.
At November competition they all did compete,
Everyone looked like they had two left feet.
J.V. Cheers would have gotten 2nd in competition,
But they had a fall, which we will not mention.
The J.V. Cheers are really nice,
Thats because they're made of sugar and spice.
Tomorrows the day for the cheerleaders to clean
A lot of dirty cars and maybe a limosine.
The cheerleaders are selling some furry creatures,
They're all covered with fuzz and they have no features!
The senior girls who are members of pep-squads
Switched around for a backwards pep rally - it sure looked odd!
As flags Kathy and Allsson just didn't fit,
But they had a great time and were a real hit.
The pep rallies are no longer considered dead,
Especially when the attraction is cheerleaders and their wig-heads.
Pilgrim the Turkey—the school mascot should be,
The pride of our team and our student body!
To find cheap gas, there were few stations to go,
Unless you get to Iran-I bet their prices are low!
Parties seem to be few this year,
But we still managed to consume plenty of beer.
Pizza and beer, pizza and beer,
Thats all that I hear is pizza and beer.
When the senior class polled they chose pizza and beer.
"Hey you, over there! Bring me one here!"

At Eric's party, the beer flowed like water,
"I'll take another" was our alma mater.
Musicals can get a little bit wacky,
But an outsider doing the lead is really quite tacky.
Scrooge was done by the A Cappella,
He was not a very nice fella.
Turn off your lights when you get out of your car,
Or the next time you try it you won't go very far!
Homecoming week went by without sleep,
When we t.p.'d houses, we didn't say a peep.
Homecoming competition put the classes to the test,
But we all know the seniors are best!
A.F.S. students have been honorary princesses before,
But when they called Keiko's name, we didn't know what for.
Seniors are always the greatest, 'tis true,
'79, '80, '81, whatever, just so long as its you!
The KKK is on campus this year,
Their main function seems to be causing trouble and consuming beer.
The lunchtime activities were going strong,
But when the seniors lost, their pride was gone.
The senior boys think they're really tough
By throwing eggs and other stuff.
A sign went up saying "For Homecoming Queen, Art Dulm."
But everyone laughed and said, "Thats too bad a crime!"
Homecoming princesses are waiting for the big day,
Trepp knows who it is, but she won't say.
At the football homecoming Mrs. Tyler was a hit,
The crowd really liked their football skit.
The J.V. Cheerleaders finally got it right,
Everyone in the same uniform on Homecoming night.
"Joanie for Junior Princess" they did call,
The cheerleaders got so excited, they made her fall.
At the homecoming game, old friends were seen,
And at the halftime, Diane was crowned queen.
The band at the homecoming dance played good songs,
But the lights were too bright, and their hair, too long.
At the Homecoming Dance, lots of people looked lazy,
But when we heard Zeppelin's 'Hot Dog' we all went crazy!
After the game, Jerry and Tracy danced the best,
That's probably why they won the dance contest.
A firebell in November, right between classes,
The people in charge better get off their a—!
Winter came awful early this year,
The frost in the mornings sure is cold on my ear!
Now the weather has changed from warm to freezing,
Out with the bathing suits, on with the sneezing!
The rain is really coming down,
Hopefully we will not all drown.
When the snow comes, we'll be going skiing,
Fewer students in school is what we'll be seeing.
Thanksgiving is coming with turkey and pie,
We all stuff ourselves and give a big sigh.
Turkey-grams were sent to those who were favored,
Those love letters and poems are sure to be savored.
Turkey day is now over and we all ate too much,
Turkey, dressing, potatoes and such.
Pilgrim didn't come back after Thanksgiving Day,
Some of us think he was victim of foul play!
For the dance this Friday, no one will show,
We all want rock, down with disco!
When Heaven played, we yelled for more,
But Mrs. Trepp told them to stop their encore.
Some people really remember the dances,
But others just look at them as past glances.
Football is over and wrestling has begun,
A bunch of guys in leotards is much more fun.
The wrestling team worked really hard,
And Miller and Andrews were the ones who starred.
The cross-country team thought they couldn't be touched,
But their rival won, but not by much.
Haven't you heard or are you deaf?
The Girl's Basketball Team's great—they made C.I.F.!
Basketball is in full force at last,
Hope we do good, like in the past.
One basketball game ended really sad,
Because Cameron hurt his hip really bad.
J.V. and Varsity Volleyball had a 10-0 season,
Good teams and coaching was mainly the reason.
Debbie is great at all kinds of sports,
Especially when she's on the volleyball courts.
Wukie could jump so high and spike the ball,
She got most valuable player in the league over all!
Everyone's poor 'cause the holidays are near,
But we all feel great 'cause the weather is clear.
In a few more weeks is Christmas time,
I better start working, because I don't have a dime.
Nerves are rising as the Christmas Ball draws near,
With some it is nerves, but with others its fear.
Christmas always comes around too fast -
I still haven't gotten over the last.
We all dressed up for the Christmas Ball,
It was held at the Arcadia Masonic Hall.
Some got green ribbons with their names in gold,
It was a night to remember and all will behold.
Lisa Samples was the Christmas Ball Queen,
She was the most surprised girl I've ever seen.
At the Christmas Ball, some people got sick,
Was it because the punch was too thick?
The best thing about 'Christmas cheer'
Is the break from school and the new year.
The Math Club sold miseltoe at Christmas time,
Everyone had fun breaking code-9.
Christmas Day with balls and holly,
A time to share and all be jolly.
The Santa Claus Lane Parade was a smash,
A horse fell onto the bystanders with a crash.
The new year came with a boom and a bang,
"Out with the old and in with the new" we all sang.

The weather was great for the New Years Parade,
The floats were outstanding and most made it without aid.
At the Rose Parade, Oak Street was the place to be,
Drunk people from Arroyo was about all to see.
The new decade has just begun,
And the class of 80 is still number one!
The Trojans won the Rose Bowl, to some quite a surprise,
The score 17-16 made U.S.C. look king size.
Everyone thought they were going insane
When a game of the World Series got cancelled by rain.
Mohammed Ali is no longer champion,
But one things for sure, his mouth is still stamp(ion?)
An old man named Stargell led the Pirates to the Pennant,
By constantly shouting "I know we can win it!"
Pirates fans screamed till throats were sore,
Their team played great-they beat Baltimore!
"The 1980 Olympics are coming" we hollar.
What is the amount? 141½ million dollars.
The Olympics camera is Nikon, and Levi's, the jeans,
And the official Olympic hamburger is Burger King!
The Winter Olympics were held at Lake Placid,
Some ski and skate so much, they must be on acid.
The U.S.'s Eric Heiden won medals of gold,
He's speedy on ice, so I am told.
The U.S. Hockey Team didn't give in,
To Russia we brought a 4-3 win!!
The '80 Olympics was where Americans did sigh,
The real gold in our hearts was for Randy and Tai.
The solution might be: to "boycott the Olympics"
We're all sick and tired of Russia's sneaky tricks.
But the summer of '80 will not be complete
For all U.S. athletes unable to compete.
The Shah finally left the other day,
If he doesn't go to Iran, thats where our hostages will stay.
Iran is really causing a mess,
The Shah keeps on moving, to avoid the press.
They cut off supplies to Iran,
Let them drink oil and eat sand!
Hostages are being taken left and right,
And to our dismay, it may be time to fight.
The 100th day came for the hostages that linger,
All of our plans haven't helped, not even a finger.
A U.N. Committee is going to Iran,
But the only thing they'll find is a backwards land.
Carter sent marines to the Persian Sea,
It's trouble it seems, hope it doesn't affect me.
To Russia, Carter has held back the grain.
He says in the longrun it should mean our gain.
Men and woman proclaimed for the draft,
Men think women need a kick in the aft.
Carter wanted Russia to be on the run,
But they were still all tanked up on Feb. 21.
Recruiting for war is giving the youth of America fear,
The only draft there whould be is on top of a beer.
If the draft is installed, I'll head for Canada,
Or go down south to the land of the bandanna's.
The gas crisis has a lot of people talking,
The outrageous prices are keeping me walking.
The news is getting worse each day,
Gas tax maybe, fifty cents they say.
Getting to school everyone started to hollar,
'Cause gas prices went up over a dollar.
As gas prices constantly soar out of reach,
Fifty dollars in gas might get you to the beach.
Billion buck profits for those dealing in oil,
While we go in debt more, that makes my blood boil.
The new line of 80's cars has hit public view,
"The age of the small car" (gas guzzlers are few).
The RTD was on strike once or twice,
If they could make up their minds, it sure would be nice.
The dollar today is almost dead -
Gold today is rising instead.
The President of South Korea got shot in the head,
After that daring attack, he now is dead.
The Korean was killed when he got shot,
They say it was an accident, but we know its not.
America is ours and we ought to respect it,
And with Carter in charge, we sure can't neglect it!
To become President is Jerry Brown's dream,
Campaigning in gay bars is where he can be seen.
Kennedy is also running for President,
A lot of us hope he'll be the White House's new resident.
At first it seemed Brown just couldn't hang in there,
But will he end up giving Kennedy a scare?
Carter, Kennedy, Reagan and Bush are in the great race,
The way they left Brown behind is a total disgrace.
Fashions this year are really bright,
With pinks and greens, (what happened to good ol' white?)
Hemlines are creeping up past the knee -
Could this be the return of the 60's mini?
O.P. has a new line of clothes, both guys and gals wear um
They even have wallets that rrrilippp when you tear um!
Some fads girls wear - I'd rather be dead,
Like real short hair, with a braid growing from your head!
Baggy pants seem to be vogue right now,
They hide what you have and make you look like a cow.
Yes, baggies are in -
They make most girls look thin,
Guys don't like them for spite,
They prefer pants that are tight!
Its time for the sophomores to order their rings
How can they afford such expensive gold things?
In FEbruary the rains were never ending,
Now many homes are ruined beyond mending.
The assembly in February begun in hesitation,
But it ended right away-there was no organization.
The Pepsi generation-assembly, almost,
The projector broke down-a woman was the host.
Mr. M. knows why the assembly's a lemon-
"Because the backstage is run by women!"
Valentines Day is coming with its treats,

Cards, hearts, and for some lots of treats.
The waves in winter were reaching six feet,
But its awful hard to surf when looking through sleet!
When it rains in the history hall, on the ground the worms retreat,
People scream and run for class, cuz the floor looks like ground meat!
For two weeks its been raining, as you can see,
Now they tell us California is slipping into the sea.
More rain - get the sandbags, there's mud in my room,
Please shovel me out or my whole life will be doomed!
The rain has stopped, the sun is shining,
Now we ought to go mining.
As Spring draws near, the Class of '80 is becoming aware
That for graduation and their future lives they must now prepare.
The Backwards Dance is on its way,
Go Hawaiian - come get a lei.
Easter vacation is almost here,
Time to go to the beach and drink some beer.
Students take drugs to try and escape,
If only they knew, its their necks they will break.
Skiers really like skiing the slopes,
There wasn't much snow, but they kept up their hopes.
The Santa Ana winds blew the smog all away,
We wish the smell of clean air would stay.
Easter vacation came none too fast,
But it was worth it, it was a blast!
Marketowne Liquors is a great place to shop -
Put it on your list as your very next stop!
Well, disco ducks, rock has really survived,
Far better than your dance tunes with a beat so contrived!
Rock & roll at Arroyo is number one without a doubt,
And everyone was glad to see disco go out.
The Police have come - they're here to stay,
Some new wave tunes with a blend of reggae.
There is a new band, its called "The Knack",
Their style seems to bring the sixties back.
The Cars were in concert, everyone took a few beers,
And everyone was saying, "look at Ric Ocasek's ears."
The Flying Lizards did a song called "Money"
The chick that sings it sounds sort of "Funny".
"Tusk" arrived by Fleetwood Mac,
And the Eagles flew in with a counter-attack,
Its called "The Long Run" and it is hit-bound,
Full of that good old California sound.
Kiss came in concert to make a comeback,
The only thing missing is the talent they lack.
Journey came out with a new album called "Evolution",
Making them rock & roll's ultimate solution.
The Who finally produced the Quadrophenia Movie,
Everyone says its really groovie.
Flashy stage shows Pink Floydd always brings,
The stage filled with bricks and 100 ft. things!
"Crazy lil thing called love" we hear Queen croon,
But when is their album release? We hope very soon.
Pink Floydd came to L.A. a sight seen by all,
They made statements about society - "another brick in the wall".
The Ramones are great, and Blondie is too,
But my favorite is still "The New Zoo Revue".
Zep's "In Through The Out Door" was put to the test,
Even after an absence of three long years, they're still the best.
Local bands are really making it big,
Straight from the Starwood to the Forum, for their next gig.
L.A.'s 2nd Annual Street Scene was a hit,
It went on for two days (we wished it wouldn't quit!)
Paul McCartney was jailed in Japan for possession,
He professes he is sorry - but did he learn his lesson?
The Who concert was fatal - eleven trampled.
Maybe this will teach greedy promoters an example.
"Opus" is a new punk rocker group,
I think they're much better than that disco troup.
KROQ is the punk rocker's station -
I think most of their minds are on vacation.
The early silly sixties-thats what the B-52's mock,
Frugging at the beach and finding lobsters that rock.
Coke and the Carribean-260 grams,
For Ronnie Wood, "It's cool, Uncle Sam."
Frazier Smith is known for his real quick lip,
Whose the next person who'll be dubbed "too hip"?
Disco is now a thing of the past,
It came in strong, but it went out fast.
The Grammy Awards were really queer,
I think that the judges aren't able to hear.
Fatso is a movie starring Dom Deluise,
I sat laughing as I finished my tenth chili dog with cheese.
Rock and Roll and Rust Never Sleeps -
The Kids Are Alright are all movies with beats
And the people that watch them can't stay in their seats.
"When A Stranger Calls" was a new horror movie-
It scared me dry, which wasn't too groovie.
"Rock and Roll High School" featured stars like the Ramones,
But the real cinema stopper was when Rob's rat was shown.
Kramer vs. Kramer is in the spotlight,
They both want the child - and over him they fight.
The movie "Star Trek" opened at the theaters at last,
Box offices have sold more than any movie in the past.
What do you think of British humor?
Monty Python is funny that is the rumor.
Watching "Life of Brian" on the big screens,
People laugh so hard they bust their seams.
"Apocalypse Now" is another box office smash,
Set in the sixties with a Vietnam flash.
"The Rose" told of sadness and lonely dispair,
What good is fame if there is no-one to care?
For the U.S., World War II was somewhat perilous
If only it was like "1941" - (that movie was hilarious).
It looks like Saturday Night Fever is finally gone
Only to be replaced by Disco Rollerskating, which really makes me yawn.
"The Rocky Horror Picture Show" is still a cult favorite,
Those late night people have made it a hit.
Rocky Horror was a really great find,
And after fifty-plus times, I'm losing my mind!
The Exorcist was shown on Tuesday night,
Watching it over was truly a fright.
The Sound of Music was on T.V.
A well known song is Do Re Mi.
Everyones favorite show is Saturday Night Live,
But now that Akyroyd and Belushi are gone, will the show take a dive?
Bob Hope had a special for three hours long,
The past 40 Christmas shows, still going strong.
When Greg goes to Taco Bell ready to eat,
He can put away five tacos, then theres a rumbling under the seat!
Staying up late at all those parties -
Is that what caused Will all his tardies?
Senior Poll voting seems to be hard,
Who's the best looking or the biggest lard?
Jeff..nana na na nanna..black,
He na nanna nanna na..sack!
Ponce, Ronnie, Jim, and Jeff -
What in the world will Collette do next?
A big branch fell on DeeDee's Camaro,
She got real angry and blamed it on a sparrow.
Julie was bad news when she went out with Drew,
Because Drew still liked Debbie, and they were not through!
Strange things always seem to happen whenever Alisa, Donna, and Debbie go out,
It makes us all wonder what "two 16" is all about.
A Z is Toms latest car,
That makes three for him this year so far!
Lori K. is quite a gal,
And I'm really glad that she's my pal!
Scott was sweet the way he kept calling,
He wanted Debbie to be happy and stop all her balling.
Karen and Eric will soon be united as one,
And their life together will have just begun.
If I don't get asked to the Prom I'll die,
Especially if its not by that special guy.
On the hands of Allison and Danny wedding bands will soon be,
And off to the life together they will then flee.
Rick really got mad when someone smashed in his truck,
He would have started a fight with any old duck.
The staff is buzzing about black magic things,
Hypnotism, mind-reading, its all done with strings.
The Shield Staff has made the banner, this time there was no spite,
Isn't it amazing - because they spelled our names all right?
Scheduling pictures can be hard on the brain,
Especially when scheduled on days of rain.
Lettering for this yearbook was hard to find.
It's putting Juan and Tom into a bind.
Deadlines are serious but also lots of fun,
Working all night till a quarter of one.
The deadline came, the deadline went,
We all cried till the pages were sent.
When the yearbook proofs come back from the company, the editors want to yell,
'Cause the workers that made these lovely mistakes got to be stupid as h—l
Being editor of this staff isn't as easy as it looks,
But after the work is all through, we'll be proud of our Kingly books!
In turning in odes, Shield Staffers delay,
But at our final deadline, it will be their dismay.
When nearing deadlines, Mary gets tough,
Don't make any mistakes, cuz she won't take any guff!
Thinking of things for the ode is hard,
They have to be written on a 3 by 5 card.
Making up odes takes lots of thinking,
A lot of them come out stinking!
The clock was ticking as we tried to think up rhymes,
To help us remember all of our good times.
Shield Staff is fun when theres nothing to do,
We all sit around and talk about "you".
The Keebler Elf haunts room 74,
He yells for cookies - and still wants more!
One Monday the staff was all in disguise,
You wouldn't have believed it unless you saw it with your own eyes!
Bedecked in costumes, to the arboretum we did troop,
Since it was early in the morning, we had to step over duck poop.
Mork and Mindy was really hot,
But we're tired of hearing that word "Shazbat".
Mr. Bill is the latest rising star,
"Oh no!" he cries - (he's been hit by a car.)
Real People is the number one show,
They'll send you a T-shirt for a clipping, you know.
Commercials are "mind candy"
They're torturous and sadistic,
Portraying women as bored housewives
And men that are chauvanistic.
A lot of talk is going around school,
But its not about you, so keep your cool.
Someone at school drives a 280-Z.
Thats very nice, but why can't it be me?
Grades for the past six weeks were just mailed,
We've got to work harder (some of us failed!)
Teachers are getting worse and worse,
I know some that can't even read a verse.
Chemistry seems to be somewhat of a drag,
And the things that we mix can make us gag.
The reason history is a required course
is so that students can have a sleeping source.
Teachers are at school trying to teach,
Even though our minds are still at the beach.
We never do enough work in any class,
And then we wonder why we don't pass!
Progress reports came out today,
Some of us got F's, but some got A's.
The three stooges teach with original flair,
It wouldn't be as funny if they were just a pair.
When Mr. Clayton left, many shed tears,
But with Mr. Fox we'll have many good years.
Pencall's class has somewhat reminded me of a prison camp,
Because of her torturous writing techniques, we've all got writers cramp.
Don't be late or stop to talk to a friend,
Or Ms. Collins will give you sentences again!
Geometry is a real drag,
In mathematic skills is where I lag.
Everyone hurried home on Friday to get their progress reports,
Some knew they would get in trouble because there was grades of all sorts.
Failing a class is really a bummer,
You have to make it up and ruin your summer.
I like taking drafting and Mr. Randol is great,
Except when he marks my drawings with an 'eight'.
In spanish third period, Art is really crazy,
But when it comes to doing homework, he sure is lazy!
Miss Sprudes secret admirer is no big spender,
And nobody's quite certain about the gender.
When Mr. Weeks passed away, we all felt great sorrow,
A scholarship fund was founded for the writers of tomorrow.
"The term papers are coming!" the teachers cried with glee:
As students exclaim sarcastically, "Oh gee".
Final exams approached much too fast,
All started studying in hopes that they'd pass.
Final exams brought lots of pain,
Boy, they drove us all insane.
One morning Gigi and Mary left campus -
The effort wasn't worth the cost,
For although they searched the whole big town,
Both Tammy and her "bug" were lost.
Tom's koala bear puppet is quite realistic,
Its cuddly and cute without a flee or a tick.
All Rory wanted was a ticket for Pink Floydd,
If he works any harder we'll mark him 'void'.
Now our 1980 Shield has a Rennaisance theme,
We did the sweating and Mary blew steam.
Mr. White is our advisor,
But I think that I am much wiser.
The editors on staff are really squirley,
Especially when the deadlines come too early.
On Staff Mary's laugh was her constant refrain,
She jumps up and down - is she insane?
Mary is Editor-in-Chief for this book,
When first seeing the staff, she took a second look.
Lee Anne can't have a car to drive to school,
It's something her parents said, a silly old rule.
LeeAnne wants a date for the Backwards Dance,
A night of fun and maybe romance.
Becky looks like she is wearing a hat,
But its really her hair -can you beat that?
Rory thinks him and his camera are really hot,
Because everyday he stops to take a shot.
Tom thinks that he is funny,
Except for when his nose is runny.
Clay dresses new wave with anything he can wear,
Although the red in his shirt clashes with his hair.
Mandy can't wait for it to stop raining,
So she can get her license and stop her complaining.
Juan still has the hairiest face,
But some other grizzly chins want to take his place.
Debbie's a Cheer, as you can see,
But next year she'll be gone, then where will we be?
Juan's little beanie is a levi's blue,
It isn't too bad, but it isn't new.
Clay is getting careless with the odes,
If the theme leaks out, he'll carry the load.
The year is all through and the work is all done,
We have a book thats rated number one!
Darkroom developements are Andy's specialty,
But what he really does in there, will we ever see?
78 was great and 79 shines,
But 80's a problem, because nothing rhymes!
Another loss to the school will be
A 'mod' little Pinto thats marked "SE".
Lisa's an artist, and friendly...for sure!
Just take a look at her Staff picture!
Come Fall 1980, this years seniors will be gone,
Each our own separate ways, its time to go on.
High school always goes by too fast,
But all will remember their Arroyo past.
Next year more sophomores will be learning to drive,
More munchkins set loose - how will we survive?
As the class of '80 marched out in robe covered legs,
Mr. White's only farewell was "Go suck eggs!"
Summer is here with lots of fun,
School is out and we're headed for the sun.
"One more year!" the juniors yell,
The sophomores cry, "Oh, go to h—l"
People change, time moves on,
Another year has come and gone.
We've all shared times both good and bad,
We won't forget the fun we had.
Now we say good-bye to the first class of the '80's,
The kids move on to become young men and ladies.
A toast to the seniors, we all lift our cup,
We don't go away, — we just grow up.
